

Use two (2) ceramic wire nuts contained in this package to splice into existing wiring. On some models sensor may be serviced from front, on other models the hole in the oven liner is not large enough for wire nut to pass through and must be serviced from rear.